🗨️ \_bintahm3d\_ Asalamu alaykum warahmatullahi wabarakatu. Ive accepted a few community members, old friends, family, on here for the first time on my account.. Yes it's me, Hoda.. I'm here to clear any accusations made against Dawlah ( ISIS ), and answer any questions if you have any for me (if I know u). Ive isolated myself from u all the last yr i was there as most of u used to bump into me and say, "where the heck have u been?!" I was dedicated to making hijrah and I didn't want anything to sway me so leaving my friends who didn't understand me was a must, and that was about, all of you.. I guarantee none of you know the haqq about dawlah, I remember how my community used to speak so against us. And I wouldn't speak it with any of you lest you'd snitch... Wallahi your aqeedah isn't sound if you side with the coalition over the muslimeen. Seek knowledge and ask the muhajireen, those who know whats really going on here.. unlike the media. "Islam began as something strange, and it will revert to being strange as it began, so glad tidings to the strangers" Basulullah ﷺ
